A New Season

The school year and start of church programs is upon us!

It's an exciting time for many, and a time of anxiety for others. I imagine you, like me, have had enough of the heat and humidity, enough of the irregular schedule, and are ready to welcome with open arms the new lightness in the air and the accompanying familiar rhythm to school, church programs, and "normal life."

We are entering this new school/program year together in quite a few ways. School is back in session, Sunday School is starting up, Confirmation will commence shortly, all our various church choirs are starting soon, Sunday Adult Education is kicking off, and Thursday Bible Studies are preparing for launch!

All this change of seasons reminds me of the sage perspective we get from the writings in Ecclesiastes, chapter 3:

- ¹For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven:
- ²a time to be born, and a time to die;
- a time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted;
- ³a time to kill, and a time to heal;
- a time to break down, and a time to build up;
- ⁴a time to weep, and a time to laugh;
- a time to mourn, and a time to dance;
- ⁵a time to throw away stones, and a time to gather stones together;
- a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
- ⁶a time to seek, and a time to lose;
- a time to keep, and a time to throw away;
- ⁷a time to tear, and a time to sew;
- a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
- ⁸a time to love, and a time to hate;
- a time for war, and a time for peace.

My prayer for you is that you find meaning and peace in the midst of this time of change. That you have an opportunity to speak, as well as a moment to be silent and observant. That you are able to seek during a new season, while making peace with losing the season that is ending. I hope that this will be a time for all of us to collectively build up, and laugh and dance together.

If this time doesn't feel that way to you, that's alright. We remember that all things are impermanent. All experiences and moments shall and must pass. Both the good and bad happen, then they go. So if you find yourself in an undesirable spot, remember that it won't last forever. And if you find yourself in a place you like, indulge in it while it lasts, remembering that it too shall pass.

Prayer Requests & Hospital Notifications

Do you have a prayer request or hospital notification you would like to pass along? You can share your requests with Pastor Tim (tim@oslc-elca.org) or Pastor Seth (seth@oslc-elca.org) or call the church office.

When you submit prayer requests, they are sent to the Our Savior's prayer chain via email and are added to the prayers during weekend worship. If you would like your request to remain confidential to a pastor, or would not like it shared with the prayer chain or included in worship prayers, please note your wishes in your request.

Update Regarding the Weekly Videos

—For the time being, we have stopped live streaming at 8 am. The recorded video will be uploaded to our YouTube page by about 9:30 am each Sunday. We are making good progress in correcting the equipment problems, and we hope to have the equipment fully functional again by fall.

That's one magnificent part of being part of the family of God. We share each other's joys and sorrows. If you need prayer, we're here for you. If you're bursting with good news and need to tell someone, we're ready to hear all about it. If you need a shoulder to cry on, there is one here at OSLC. And if you have reason to rejoice, we're here to rejoice with you.

In all things, we give thanks for the gift of life and for the blessing of our life together. So here at the transition of one season to the next, together we say "thanks be to God!"

Pastor Seth

Financial Progress Report for July 2023

1) General Fund:	2) Building Fund:
Giving: $47,593.94	Giving: $6,540.00
Expenses: $50,860.61	Expenses: $7,103.00
Net Cash Flow: $<3,266.67>	Net Cash Flow: $<563.00>
YTD Cash Flow: $<19,369.92>	YTD Cash Flow: $<7,971.00>

A Note from OSLC's Treasurer:

Annual Budget: $627,500.

As of July, giving was at 59% of the budget and expenses were 62% of the budget.

A Note from OSLC's Finance Board Chair:

The finance board is pleased to mention that we are whittling away at our mortgage which is down to $770,000 as of July! We have also noticed that the building fund giving has dwindled a little bit. If you are looking for an area of the church to donate, please consider giving to our building fund! As always, we appreciate you and the blessing we have to gather in this beautiful space!

God's Peace,
Your Finance Board

A request from Bonnie in the OSLC office:

We recently have received offerings in pew envelopes with only a giver's number and not a name. I want to remind everyone to please include your name, as I only see the envelopes (and not the checks), and some envelope numbers have changed and/or are no longer in use. I have not been able to match some of these numbers with givers' names. We want to make sure you are always credited with your giving! Thank you to all for your continued generosity.

A Note from the Stewardship Committee—Save the date!

Sunday, October 22nd will be Stewardship Sunday. We will have one service that day followed by a potluck lunch. There will be more details to come. Please join us for fun and fellowship!

Hi Everyone,

I'd like to thank everyone who joined us on August 13th for the 5th Annual Benefit Concert for Dysphonia International!

With the weather shifting to sprinkles and rain, we set up in the Sanctuary. Special thanks to Classic Brass members: Steve Williams, Janet Olsen, Tony Boldt, Ellington Starks, and my brother, Warren Bandel, coming from Rochester. The variety of brass music was wonderful! Thanks to Julie Niemeyer for providing some delightful solos from her favorite musicals!

Thanks to our musical quartet: Emily LaFleur, Julie Niemeyer, Wayne Valley and Bill Zimmerman! Thanks also to John Krueger for his piano solo and to Kimberly Kuman for sharing information about Dysphonia International. A big round of applause for all of you in the audience. As Warren said, "If it weren't for you, the audience, this would feel like just another rehearsal!" Thank you all for your support of Dysphonia International! Your generous donations were close to $1460 and will be used for research of spasmodic dysphonia.

Thank you for your support!
Diane Padrutt

My Favorite Hymn(s)

Angie Schmidt

A couple of months ago, I thought it might be fun if those of us on the music staff each took a month and wrote a paragraph or 2 about our favorite hymns. It could be a hymn that reminds us of our childhoods, maybe a special event in our lives, a beloved family member, just how the tune or lyrics came to be, or maybe how the lyrics speak to us. Really whatever we would want to share. It also wouldn't necessarily have to be hymns—could be other works or pieces that brought joy when listening or was a “just the right time” piece.

As you can imagine, it was hard for me to choose hymns to share with you for my first post and I chose to share “For All the Saints” (ELW 422). The tune is Sine Nomine which was written by Ralph Vaughan Williams in 1906. The reason this hymn is special to me takes me all the way back to my senior year in high school (1983). I believe this was the first time that the SPSHS Wind Ensemble (directed by Bernie Powers) and the Concert Choir (under the direction of Mary Schmidt) brought these two groups together to perform this work. I was intrigued by the tune and the “walking” bass line (I played bass clarinet), but once we put it together with the voices, the piece came to life for me.

Today, the lyrics (by William W. How) hold a special place in my heart. When I was in high school, I don't think I truly understood the concept of being a saint. Now as I have so many saints in my life, this hymn reminds me of the beloved saints who have gone before me. Here is my favorite verse, well maybe 2, of this 7 stanza work:

*³Oh, blest communion, fellowship divine,
We feebly struggle, they in glory shine;
Yet all are one in thee, for all are thine.
Alleluia! Alleluia!*

*⁴And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long,
Steals on the ear the distant triumph song,
And hearts are brave again and arms are strong.
Alleluia! Alleluia!*

To listen to a recording of the arrangement for concert band and SATB choir that I performed, here is a YouTube link: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=AEVEAUtOsaI>. The recording isn't the greatest (it's from 2013), but I think you'll get the idea.

Time is Near to Celebrate with the Neighbors at OSLC!

Saturday, September 9th!
2:00 pm—6:00 pm

Mark your fall calendar for the OSLC party in our own church parking lot! We will be inviting our local neighborhood to join us for a Blacktop Party on Saturday, September 9!

We've got quite the event planned with a local well-known band, The Dirty Birds, playing live music, ice cream, popcorn, face painting stations, and a bouncy house! We are also asking you to bring your yard games to use: Corn Hole (aka bags), and any other yard games such as yard jenga. (Please no water toys/guns.) If you have a hula hoop or two to donate we'd like to have a hula hoop contest during one of the songs being played by the band.

Of course to make this all work we are going to need your help. Many hands make light work and a fun party! This is a wonderful way to meet our neighbors, have fun together, and kick off our fall program year. Look for the signup sheet on the table in the Narthex or sign up online at this link:

<https://www.signupgenius.com/go/20F0E4DAAAE2DA0FB6-sept#/>

Here are some of the fun things we will need help with!

- Face Painting
- Bouncy House Helper
- Popcorn Machine
- Helping with games
- Serving ice cream
- Set-up and clean-up

Church in Society

A Call to Justice and Mercy (JAM)

What does God require of you but to do justice, love mercy and walk humbly with your God.

Micah 6:8

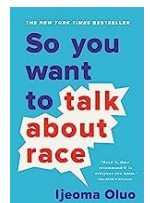

We all are called to do justice and love mercy. Jesus calls us to love our neighbor. As Christians we should be and are frustrated and troubled by the racism we see in our world, our country, and in our own communities. The question before us is how can we help to bring change to the effects of racism?

The first step needed is to learn about racism. How do we talk about it? How did racism come to be? How does it show up in our daily lives? We must know about it to do something about it. So we begin to learn about racism, its language, its history, and how it still continues in subtle and not so subtle ways in our society.

NOW IS THE TIME!

The JAM team has been preparing for almost a year and we are excited to begin exploring the subject of racial justice with you! Our first class will begin September 17, 9:15 to 10:15 in the chapel next to the library. Classes will continue September 24, October 1, 8 and 15. We will sponsor a movie on November 5th.

The first book is So You Want to Talk About Race by Ijeoma Oluo. Thanks to a Thrivent grant, we are able to provide the books at no cost to you. Please pick up your book at the table located to the right of the Welcome Desk. Please sign that you are taking a book so we know how many to expect. All are welcome even if you might miss a week here or there or just want to try it out. Join us!

The first week we will be talking about the Preface, Introduction through Chapter Three.

From the JAM Team: Sue Lux, Linda Frautschy, Diane Padrutt, Peggy Schaub, and Judy Singletary

Sunshine Food Pantry Assistance

You're invited to bring in these especially needed items for the Food Pantry (place on the “Food Pantry Donations” table in the Narthex):

- Cereals (in great need of this)
- Juice
- Feminine hygiene products
- Diapers/Pull-ups and Baby Wipes
- Bags (both paper and plastic)

Bags/boxes of donations will be blessed at the service on September 10th (when we will also have a Blessing of the Quilts). Thank you for making a difference for Sun Prairie families!

2023-2024 Confirmation Registration Now Open!

The confirmation year is fast approaching and it's time to get your 6th-9th grader registered for our program! Registration can be completed online - vbspro.events/p/1e0e85.

The confirmation year will begin on Wednesday, September 20th with our confirmation kick-off event at OSLC from 6:30-8pm. Classes will begin the following week on Wednesday, September 27th (6:30-7:45pm). Following each confirmation class is our optional weekly youth group for 6th-8th grade students called CHAOS! CHAOS is a time for fun activities, active group games, and hangout time. While this is optional, this is an important time for students to build relationships with other kids from church outside of a classroom environment.

Our confirmation program is dependent on the dedication of volunteers to help lead small groups and chaperone events. We are always in need of volunteers and can find a place for you to serve in whatever capacity you are comfortable. If you would like to join the team of confirmation volunteers, please contact matt@oslc-elca.org for more information.
